The Honourable Seamus O'Regan
Minister of Veterans Affairs
66 Slater Street, 16th Floor
Ottawa, ON K1A 0P4

Minister:

Let me take this opportunity on behalf of the National Council of Veteran Associations and The War Amputations of Canada to congratulate you on your appointment as Minister of Veterans Affairs.

I have had the privilege of working with your predecessors over the last 40 years and look forward to collaborating with you to further the interests of our veterans and their dependants.

Minister, I must say that we were encouraged by the commitments laid out by your party in the 2015 Liberal election campaign platform in relation to veterans' concerns.

Many of the issues delineated during the campaign by the Prime Minister Mr. Trudeau reflecting the intent of his new Government represented longstanding grievances and inequities which have been identified by various Standing Committees of Veterans Affairs, the Veterans Ombudsman's office and the multiple Advisory Groups which have studied these matters including our own NCVA Legislative Agenda.

Policy Advisory Group established by Mr. Hehr, which I co-chair, tabled a comprehensive set of proposals at the Veterans Summit in October 2016 which provided, in our judgement, a first step to remedying these voids and shortcomings in current veterans' legislation.

Over the last number of years, we have taken the position that previous Federal administrations have failed to fulfill the Government's fundamental obligation to provide financial security and appropriate compensation to Canada's disabled veteran in violation of the Social Covenant which has been established since WWI between the Canadian people and Canada's veterans and their families.

We look forward to continuing this important dialogue with you and addressing the next steps required to remedy the gaps and injustices readily apparent in the New Veterans Charter and other related veterans' legislation and policies.

Kind regards.

Yours very truly,

Brian N. Forbes, B.Com., LLB
Chairman of National Council of Veteran Associations in Canada
Chairman of the Executive Committee of The War Amputations of Canada
